About me

I am a JavaScript/React developer with over 6 years of web development experience.

I like to test out new technologies to better solve existing problems. With my working background I have experience with various stakeholders and teams to get things done. As a developer I ensure my code is clean, maintainable and scalable.

Over the last 6 years, I have developed a wide range of websites using React. I contributed to latoken.com yandex.ru/february1917 yandex.ru/2016 for example. My core competency lies in developing web application. Completed various projects that involved React with Redux/Mobx architect.
